Supporting seniors in maintaining health, dignity and self-determination.

Dear Scott;

Thank you so much for leading our staff retreat this year. It was very successful and your comments were well received. Each employee felt they had learned something about themselves and their workplace.

Your enthusiasm certainly encouraged participation from all staff. You covered our topic quite well, and with the injection of just the right amount of humor we all felt comfortable and relaxed.

I would recommend your services. You are a dynamic speaker who shares personal history along with the subject at hand.

Thanks again, Scott. We may call on you in the future.

Sincerely,

Mary Beth Wolford, Ed.D.
